T. : Dear guests, attention! There are two guests from Ukraine and Canada at our lesson. They are Betsy and Tanya. Let me introduce them!

(Выходит Betsy)

T.: Good morning, Betsy! Glad to see you!

Betsy: Glad to see you, too!

(Выходит Tanya в украинском костюме)

T.: Hello, Tanya! Nice to meet you!

Tanya: Nice meeting you, too!

Tanya and Betsy together (обращаясь к классу):

Greeting

Hello, everyone!

Nice to meet you!

How are you?

How have you been?

How you getting on?

How's life?

Glad to see you!

T.: And now girls introduce yourselves!

Betsy: My name is Betsy. I am from Canada. My favourite holidays are Thanksgiving Day, Mother's Day and Father's Day. We celebrate Thanksgiving Day on the fourth Thursday of November. Mother's Day is celebrated in March. Father's Day is celebrated in June.

Tanya: My name is Tanya. I live in Ukraine. We celebrate many holidays in our country. I should say I like all of them. Celebrating is my joy. I like greeting guests at my home. And what about you? What's your favourite holidays?

1. Основная часть урока

T.: Our conversation is about some of the holidays. A great number of holidays can be divided into several types.

Lets repeat the names of all these holidays

T. – P₁ – P₂ – P₃

(слайд №3)

Check on homework

1. Проверка домашнего задания
2. Чтение текста, активизация ЛЕ урока в диалогах.

T.: Now, pupils, your homework was to read the text about holidays. Lets open your books and read the text (ex. 1, page 64 "What are holidays?").

Let us speak about Ukrainian and English holidays.

Answer my questions:

1. What are many holidays like?

P.: Many holidays are days when you don't have to go to school.

2. What are holidays for?

P.: Holidays are often fun-filled days when our family gets together for a big dinner or a picnic

3. What does the word “holiday” mean?

P.: The word “holiday” means a “holy” day – a day, on which people thank and honor God.

Practice

3. Краткая презентация сообщений о праздниках соответственно поставленного задания.

T.: What way do people celebrate these holidays?

Pupil 1: It depends on the date itself and country, its national traditions and customs.

T.: The first public holiday is New Year’s Day. What do you know about it?
Will you come to the blackboard and speak?

Pupil 2: As for me I like New Year’s Day and I’ll speak about it now.

New Year’s Day is the most favourite of all holidays in Ukraine. We give New Year presents; children receive their presents under the New Year’s Tree on the morning of the 1st of January. The main folk heroes of this holiday are Father Frost (Did Moroz) and his granddaughter Snigurochka (The Snow Girl).

(слайд №4)

Pupil 3: And my favourite holiday is Victory Day, and I’ll speak about it now.

Victory Day, May 9th, 1945 was a happy day for the people of our country and all the countries which fought for the victory over the fascist armies. Victory Day is celebrated in Russia, Ukraine and Belarus.

The eternal memory of those lost will last forever throughout the generations.

(слайд №5)

Pupil 4: As for me my favourite holiday is Independence Day.

My name is Katya. I’m Ukrainian. I’m proud of my country. I would like to tell you about Independence Day. August, the 24th - Independence Day. It is Ukraine’s largest State holiday. The Act of Declaration of Independence of Ukraine was adopted by the Ukrainian parliament on August 24th 1991. The act established Ukraine as an independent Democratic state.

(слайд №6)

T.: Nowadays Ukrainian people like to celebrate religious holidays. The first religious holiday is Christmas.

Pupil 5: My favourite holiday is Christmas.

The period from the 7th of January until the 14th of January is Saint Christmas week. During this week people go from one house to another, singing songs and wishing good wishes of health, prosperity and just having a good time. The songs are called “Kolyadky” and “Schedrivky”. It is believed that everything that the people have sung in their Kolyadka and Schedrivka will come true.

(слайд №7)

T.: The most popular song nowadays is “Jingle Bells”. My dear friends, I have presents for you on the eve of Christmas. (Christmas presents). And let us sing a song!

(звучит песня Jingle Bells)

Lexical Revision

4. Выполнение заданий на карточках.

T.: What do you know about Easter?

P.: The traditional greeting of this day is “Christos Voskres!” and the answer is “Voistinu Voskres!”
(слайд №8)

T.: Let’s do the exercise. “Choose the right answer”.
(слайд №9)

T.: Children, which holiday did we have on the 19th of December?

P.: It was St. Nicholas’ Day. As for me it’s my favourite holiday.

St. Nicholas’ Day is the holiday for young children. St. Nicholas is the patron saint of children. On this day parents and relatives surprised their kids with small gifts, toys or books under their pillows.

Every child who behaved well during the year will receive a present from St. Nicholas on the day. Nowadays it has become traditional to present gifts to every child.

(слайд №10)

T.: Nowadays it has become traditional to celebrate the very British and American holidays as St. Valentine’s Day and Halloween.

(слайд №11-12)

14th of February is St. Valentine’s Day inherited from Western culture, is now very popular in Ukraine.

Pupils, read the mixed-up sentences. Which sentences describe Valentine’s Day and which ones – Halloween?

(слайд №13)

T.: I have got a symbol of Halloween. It’s a pumpkin called Jack-o-Lantern.

(учитель показывает поделку из тыквы, символизирующую Хеллоуин)

T.: Children, let’s look at the pumpkins and try to read what is written there. Every figure corresponds to the letter in the English alphabet.

(слайд №14)

Doing crosswords

5. Решение кроссворда по теме.

T.: Let’s revise the material about some holidays and special Days in Britain.

T. – P₁ – P₂ – P₃
(слайд №15)

T.: In what month are there holidays celebrated? Remember and do the crossword.

(слайд №16)

6. Заключительная часть урока

Homework

1. Домашнее задание

T.: Dear friends! Our guests Betsy and Tanya had listened to your stories about holidays with great pleasure.

They said: “Many thanks for you” and wrote the letters about their holidays. You will read these letters in exercise 1 on page 66. It will be your homework. Open your daybooks and write down (ex.1, p. 66).

2. Оценивание работы учащихся

T.: I’m very satisfied with you! You have worked so hard today! And you get the following marks.

(“You are superstar!”, “You are well done!”, “You are the best!”, “I’m proud of you”, “Children, wait to go!”)

Summarizing

2. Подведение итогов урока

T.: 1. What topic did we discuss at the lesson today?

2. What have you learned to speak about?
